CITIZENSHIP WORKSHOP for Volunteer Instructors
Monday, October 23
9:00 am - 4:00 pm
UA Social Sciences Building Room 311

What is the purpose of the workshop? To receive the training needed to assist Legal Permanent Residents (LPRs) in applying for U.S. citizenship using the online platform, AccesoLatino (www.accesolatino.org). In Spring, the trained volunteers will provide 10 2-hour sessions of instruction to individuals who will be apply for citizenship.

Who can participate in the workshop? Anyone interested in supporting the citizenship program being implemented by the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM) in the USA can participate in this Workshop. Students at the University of Arizona who wish to obtain credits for these activities, contact Dr. Anna O’Leary, Mexican American Studies (olearya@email.arizona.edu), or contact their departmental undergraduate advisor. Please note that the training will be in Spanish.

Who organizes the workshop? UNAM Tucson, Center for Mexican Studies, in partnership with Chicanos Por La Causa, The UA College of Social & Behavioral Sciences, The UA Dept of Mexican American Studies, and Fundación México Inc.

Instructor: Dr. Jorge Madrazo, UNAM Seattle Director, CEM.
Dr. Madrazo got his law Degree by UNAM and he has been Constitutional Law Professor at its Law School since 1978 and Full time Researcher at The Institute of Legal Sciences (1976 to 1990). He served as Commissioner for Peace in Chiapas during 1994-1995 and as President of the Ibero-American Federation of Ombudsmen and was the First Visitor and President of the Mexico’s Human Rights Commission. From 1996 to 2000 he was Attorney General of Mexico. He was Consul of Mexico in Seattle, Washington and is currently Director of UNAM Seattle, Center for Mexican Studies.

Interested? please contact Graciela Robinson at unamtucson2015@gmail.com or by phone at 520 626 9702