

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL & BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

School of Middle Eastern
& North African Studies

Summer Session II (2017)

July 10th - Aug 9th

POUYE KHOSHKHOOSANI

khoshkho@email.arizona.edu

(MENA 277A)

HISTORY OF THE MIDDLE EAST

Take an online and well-designed course during Summer Session II and earn credits for your General Education (Tier II)! MENA 277A provides a historical overview of the first nine centuries of Islamic civilization. It focuses primarily on the major political dynasties in the Middle East, as well as global events, such as the Crusader and Mongol invasions. This course is designed to explore the intellectual and spiritual life of the classical Islamic world and to familiarize the students with the world of Persian literature and the Islamic material culture.

All reading materials will be provided on D2L!

Contact Information

845 N. Park Ave, Marshall Bldg., Room 440, Tucson, AZ, 85719

Phone: 520-621-8013

Email: envita@email.arizona.edu