RECREATION AND SPORT IN COMMUNITIES, PARKS, AND SCHOOLS

Recreation and sport activities provide countless benefits for communities and people of all ages. This minor prepares students to provide high-quality and inclusive leisure experiences in a variety of settings.

You'll get to take courses, such as:

- ▶ Planning Community Events and Recreation Programs
- ▶ Theory and Practice of Coaching
- ▶ Administration in Recreation, Community, and Nonprofit Organizations
- ▶ Sports, Adolescents, and School
- ▶ Recreation and Leisure in Contemporary Society
- ▶ Conservation Planning and Wildland Recreation

Plus, you can build your résumé through internship opportunities!

Your class opened my eyes and broadened my perspective on sport and education — and how important sports are in learning and developing.
